

DETAILSItinerary

Day 01: Arrival Kathmandu
Day 02: Kathmandu Exploration
Day 03: Kathmandu Exploration
Day 04: Drive to Chitwan
Day 05: Chitwan – Jungle Safari & Village Walk
Day 06: Chitwan to Bandipur
Day 07: Drive Bandipur to Pokhara
Day 08: Pumdikot Kalabang Hike
Day 09: Pokhara to Lumbini
Day 10: Lumbini – Tilaurakot
Day 11: Lumbini – Kathmandu – Excursion to Nagarkot.
Day 12: Fly to Delhi
Day 13: Delhi
Day 14: Delhi
Day 15: Delhi – Agra
Day 16: Agra
Day 17: Departure from Delhi

Highlights

- Explore the historic streets, temples, and UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Kathmandu
- Take Mount Everest Flight
- Witness the vibrant local culture and festivals, and experience traditional arts, crafts, and cuisine in Kathmandu and surrounding villages.
- Embark on a jeep safari in Chitwan National Park, spotting exotic wildlife
- Discover the indigenous Tharu culture through village walks and cultural performances.
- Visit the hilltop town of Bandipur, known for its preserved Newari heritage, cobblestone streets, and panoramic mountain views.
- Enjoy scenic drives and panoramic vistas of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges on the way to Pokhara.
- Trek through forested hills and traditional villages on the Pumdi Kalabang Day Hike, culminating in breathtaking Himalayan views.
- Explore Pokhara's cultural and natural landmarks, including the Japanese Peace Pagoda, Davis Falls, Gupteshwor Cave, Tibetan Refugee Camp, Old Bazaar, and Lakeside.
- Experience the spiritual ambiance of Lumbini, the birthplace of Buddha, and visit its monasteries, Maya Devi Temple, and the Monastic Zone.
- Visit Tilaurakot, the ancient city of Kapilavastu, with its archaeological ruins, fortifications, palace complex, and museum artifacts.
- Enjoy hilltop views from Nagarkot and witness spectacular sunrises or sunsets over the Himalayas.

- Immerse yourself in a journey combining culture, heritage, spirituality, wildlife, and natural beauty, offering a comprehensive Nepalese experience.
- Visit the iconic Taj Mahal in India and the vibrant city, Delhi.

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 01: Arrival Kathmandu

Upon arrival at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu, you will be warmly welcomed and escorted by private transfer to your centrally located hotel.

After freshening up and resting from your journey, you will meet your guide for a brief orientation session outlining the exciting itinerary ahead.

As the day draws to a close, enjoy a gentle stroll through the vibrant streets of Kathmandu and explore its lively streets and markets. This leisurely walk offers the perfect opportunity to acclimatize and immerse yourself in the rich local atmosphere.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 02: Kathmandu Exploration – Heritage Tour

Mountain Flight: Take a one-hour morning mountain flight from Kathmandu. This is a scenic airplane journey that brings you close to the Himalayas, offering breathtaking aerial views of the world's highest peaks and then bring you back to Kathmandu. Enjoy panoramic views of snow-clad peaks, deep valleys, and glacial landscapes, with highlights including Mount Everest (8,848 m), Kanchenjunga (8,586 m), Lhotse (8,516 m), Makalu (8,485 m), and Cho Oyu (8,188 m).

Your day begins with a visit to Pashupatinath Temple, Nepal's most sacred Hindu shrine dedicated to Lord Shiva, gracefully situated on the banks of the sacred Bagmati River. Here, you will witness profound rituals and cremation ceremonies, offering a deeply spiritual and insightful experience.

From there, continue your full-day guided tour to Boudhanath Stupa, one of South Asia's largest spherical stupas and a vibrant center of Tibetan Buddhist culture. Observe monks engaged in prayer, devoted pilgrims circumambulating the stupa, and colorful prayer flags fluttering gently in the breeze.

Next, take a full day trip to Bhaktapur, one of the three medieval city-states of the Kathmandu Valley. Known for its well-preserved medieval architecture and UNESCO World Heritage status, Bhaktapur is a living museum. Begin your exploration at Durbar Square, surrounded by intricately carved palaces and temples. Admire the Vatsala Temple, the Fifty-Five Window Palace, and the iconic Nyatapola Temple. Wander through the bustling alleys to witness artisans at work, making pottery and wood carvings. Visit Bhairab Nath Temple and try local delicacies like king curd (juju dhau). In the afternoon, head to Dattatraya Square to see historic temples and the Pujari Math, showcasing traditional Newari architecture and design.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 03: Kathmandu Exploration – Art & Culture

Begin in Patan, or Lalitpur, the “City of Fine Arts,” just 5 km southeast of Kathmandu. Known for exceptional craftsmanship, Patan boasts metallic idols, stone and wood carvings, thanka paintings, and sand mandalas. These are art forms perfected by Newar artisans over centuries. Patan Durbar Square, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a masterpiece of Malla-era architecture, lined with temples and monasteries. Strolling through its narrow lanes feels like entering a living museum, where craftsmen still practice repoussé and lost-wax casting. Patan's festivals, language, cuisine, and clothing add to the immersion in Newar civilization.

Next, explore Bungmati, a historic Newari village preserving traditional lifestyles despite earthquakes and modern changes. Its brick houses with tiled roofs, carved wooden doors, and multiple stories display both artistry and practicality. Many are built around courtyards that serve as secure, private spaces for socializing, washing, and grain grinding. Using brick, stone, mud, and timber, these homes reflect authentic Newar construction methods and aesthetics.

Conclude at Swayambhunath, also known as the “monkey temple”, one of Nepal's oldest and most revered stupas. Set on a hilltop with sweeping views of Kathmandu, it symbolizes harmony between Hinduism and Buddhism. Prayer wheels, ornate shrines, and a serene atmosphere provide a fitting spiritual close to your day.

This journey offers a deep dive into the Kathmandu Valley's art, history, and enduring cultural traditions. Return to your hotel in Kathmandu in the evening.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 04: Drive to Chitwan

Leave Kathmandu in the morning and follow the Prithvi Highway, descending through lush hillsides, terraced farms, and riverside settlements. The road winds alongside the Trishuli River, offering scenic views of deep valleys and occasional glimpses of snow-capped peaks in the distance. Soon, you will be passing through the fertile plains of the Terai before arriving in Chitwan.

Upon arrival, head to the Rapti River for a gentle boating experience. Drifting along the calm waters, you can spot marsh mugger crocodiles basking on the banks, watch kingfishers dart across the water, and see deer or rhinos coming down to drink. This serene ride is the perfect introduction to the biodiversity of Chitwan National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site renowned for its rich wildlife, including the one-horned rhinoceros, Bengal tiger, gharial crocodile, and over 500 species of birds.

In the evening, enjoy the Tharu cultural program at your jungle resort. The Tharu, indigenous to the Terai, are known for their vibrant dances, rhythmic drumming, and stories passed down through generations. Their performances, often accompanied by traditional dress and lively music, offer a warm and colorful glimpse into local heritage, adding a cultural highlight to your first night in Chitwan.

Drive Distance: 180km, 5-6 hours

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 05: Chitwan – Jungle Safari & Village Walk

Embark on a thrilling Jeep safari into Chitwan National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site celebrated for its extraordinary biodiversity. As you journey through dense sal forests, open grasslands, and riverine landscapes, keep your eyes peeled for the park's most iconic residents—the one-horned rhinoceros, Bengal tiger, and sloth bear. The park is also home to sambar deer, spotted deer, wild boar, and troops of playful rhesus macaques and langurs. Along the rivers, you may glimpse gharial crocodiles and marsh muggers, while the skies above are alive with birdlife, from vibrant hornbills and peafowls to elegant storks and kingfishers. Each turn of the trail offers the possibility of an unforgettable wildlife encounter.

Later, a village walk introduces you to the Tharu community, the indigenous inhabitants of the Terai. Strolling through narrow lanes, you'll see mud-plastered homes decorated with traditional motifs, observe daily chores like weaving and farming, and learn about their unique traditions shaped by life in the jungle. Friendly interactions with villagers often bring stories, songs, or demonstrations of age-old crafts, making this experience a warm cultural complement to the morning's wilderness adventure.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 06: Chitwan to Bandipur – Old Town Charm

Leave the lowland jungles behind and begin your scenic drive towards Bandipur. The journey unfolds through lush greenery, terraced farmlands, and hillside villages, with roadside glimpses of rural life. On clear days, the distant Himalayan peaks appear like a painted backdrop, adding to the drive's charm.

Perched on a hilltop, Bandipur is a beautifully preserved town where Newari heritage meets sweeping mountain views. Its cobblestone streets are lined with traditional houses adorned with carved wooden windows and balconies. The local market hums with color, while temples and shrines tucked into corners add a spiritual air to the town's atmosphere. You can stroll the lanes at leisure, pop into small cafés, visit heritage buildings, or simply pause to admire the panoramas of the Annapurna, Manaslu, and Langtang ranges.

After exploring, enjoy time to unwind, relaxing at your accommodation as the sun sets over the hills. This day offers a gentle transition from the wildlife-rich plains of Chitwan to the serene, cultural charm of Bandipur, setting a slower and more peaceful rhythm to your journey.

Drive Distance: 103km, 3-4 hours

Meals: Breakfast

Day 07: Drive Bandipur to Pokhara

This morning's drive from Bandipur to Pokhara offers a scenic descent from the hilltops into the lush valleys of central Nepal. The road winds past terraced rice fields, forested hillsides, and small roadside settlements, with occasional river crossings revealing crystal-clear mountain streams. Along the way, glimpses of the Annapurna and Machapuchare (Fishtail) peaks build anticipation for arrival in Nepal's beloved lake city.

In Pokhara, visit Davis Falls, a dramatic waterfall plunging into an underground gorge, and explore the adjoining Gupteshwor Cave, a sacred cavern housing a shrine to Lord Shiva. Continue to the Tibetan Refugee Camp, where families who fled Tibet in the 1950s maintain their traditions, crafts, and daily routines, offering insight into Tibetan culture and handicrafts such as handwoven carpets and jewelry.

Stroll through Pokhara's Old Bazaar, a lively maze of local shops, colorful fabrics, and hidden temples reflecting the city's rich cultural tapestry. Stop by Bidhyabhasini Temple and the Seti Gorge, a deep river canyon carved through the city, showcasing Pokhara's dramatic natural features.

Conclude the day with a gentle walk along Lakeside, where cafés and restaurants line the waterfront. As the sun sets behind the mountains, the calm waters of Phewa Lake mirror the sky's colors, offering a tranquil and picturesque end to your day.

Drive Distance: 76km, 2 hours

Meals: Breakfast

Day 08: Pumdi-Kalabang Hike

After soaking in the vistas and serene atmosphere at the Peace Pagoda, the trail becomes steeper, leading to a moderately challenging ascent of about 1 to 1.5 hours up to Pumdikot Hill, situated at 1,500 meters. The summit is home to a striking 51-foot statue of Lord Shiva, a significant pilgrimage site and cultural landmark, surrounded by other religious structures including the world's largest Damaru drum, statues of Lord Ganesh and Nandi, and 108 shivlings.

From Pumdikot, trekkers are rewarded with panoramic views of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges, Pokhara city, Phewa Lake, and the winding Harpan Khola River, creating a spectacular Himalayan panorama. The trail continues further to Kalabang village, a traditional Gurung settlement, where you can explore the local culture and lifestyle before beginning the descent.

After completing the hike, return to Pokhara and unwind with a boat ride on Phewa Lake. The tranquil waters reflect the surrounding mountains, while the lakeside scenery and serene ambiance provide a perfect conclusion to your day, blending adventure with relaxation and offering an authentic Himalayan experience.

Hike Duration: 5 hours

Meals: Breakfast

Day 09: Pokhara to Lumbini – Spiritual Exploration

Take a short flight from Pokhara to Bhairahawa Airport, about a half-hour drive from Lumbini, the birthplace of Buddha.

Begin your visit at the Maya Devi Temple, marking the exact spot where Buddha was born. Nearby, the ancient Ashokan Pillar, erected around 250 BCE, stands as one of the earliest historical markers of Buddhism in the region.

Next, explore the Monastic Zone, a peaceful area where over 60 monasteries built by countries including Japan, Thailand, Myanmar, China, Germany, and Nepal showcase diverse architectural styles and cultural influences. Each monastery reflects its nation's interpretation of Buddhist traditions, from ornate pagodas and golden stupas to tranquil meditation halls and gardens. Walking through the Monastic Zone, you can observe monks chanting, visitors meditating, and intricate decorations symbolizing Buddhist teachings, creating a serene and culturally rich environment.

End the day with a reflective stroll through the sacred grounds of this UNESCO World Heritage Site, soaking in the spiritual ambiance and global diversity of the monastic community.

Flight Duration: 20 minutes

Meals: Breakfast

Day 10: Lumbini – Tilaurakot - Buddha's Ancient Palace

Today you will travel about 27 kilometers west of Lumbini to visit Tilaurakot, an important archaeological and historic site believed to be the ancient city of Kapilavastu. This is where Siddhartha Gautama, who later became the Buddha, spent the first 29 years of his life as a prince. The site features well-preserved ruins of a fortified citadel with defensive walls and a moat, ancient streets arranged in a grid pattern, and the remains of a large central palace complex, offering a glimpse into early urban planning.

Your exploration begins at the entrance, where you will learn about Tilaurakot's significance as the capital of the Shakya kingdom and the boyhood home of Prince Siddhartha. Walking through the fort ruins, palace foundations, ancient streets, and religious monuments such as stupas and monasteries, you can absorb the historic atmosphere and imagine life in this early city. After touring the site, you will visit the nearby museum, which houses artifacts excavated from Tilaurakot, including pottery, coins, jewelry, and terracotta figures. These exhibits provide deeper insight into the culture and daily life of the Shakya era.

Depending on your interests and time, you may choose to visit nearby Buddhist sites or peaceful natural areas for reflection.

You will then return to Lumbini in the afternoon or early evening, leaving time to relax or explore any remaining sacred sites within the Lumbini complex. This day offers a meaningful blend of history, archaeology, and spiritual reflection, enriching your understanding of Buddha's early life.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 11: Lumbini – Kathmandu – Nagarkot-Kathmandu.

After breakfast, you will take a flight from Bhairahawa back to Kathmandu, returning from the tranquil plains of Lumbini to the bustling Kathmandu Valley. From the airport, you will drive to Nagarkot, a hilltop destination renowned for its panoramic views of the Himalayas, including the Annapurna and Everest ranges on clear days. The scenic drive passes through charming villages, terraced fields, and forested areas, offering glimpses of rural life and the lush landscapes of central Nepal.

At Nagarkot, you will have a short stop to enjoy the serene mountain atmosphere and take in the views, capturing memorable photographs of the valley and distant peaks. In the evening, you will return to Kathmandu, completing the day's journey while leaving time to relax at your hotel or explore a nearby area in the city. This day combines the peaceful charm of Nagarkot with the convenience of returning to Kathmandu for an overnight stay, balancing nature, scenic beauty, and travel.

Flight Duration: 35 minutes.

Drive Distance: 60km (Total)

Meals: Breakfast

Day 12: Kathmandu- Delhi | Departure

On your final day, you will be transferred to Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu for your onward flight. Depending on your flight schedule, you may have time to enjoy a leisurely breakfast or a brief walk around the hotel vicinity before departure. This marks the conclusion of your journey through Nepal, leaving you with lasting memories of the Himalayas, cultural heritage, and spiritual experiences encountered along the way.

Arrive at Delhi International airport and transfer to the hotel

Meals: Breakfast

Day 13: Delhi - Old & New Delhi – Culture, Heritage & Curated Experiences

Begin your day with a visit to Humayun's Tomb, a masterpiece of Mughal architecture set within beautifully landscaped gardens, offering a tranquil start to your exploration. Continue to Qutub Minar, where intricate carvings and towering stonework reflect Delhi's layered history. A stop at the serene Lotus Temple provides a moment of quiet reflection amidst its striking modern design.

In the afternoon, experience the vibrant energy of Old Delhi with a curated walk or rickshaw ride through Chandni Chowk, offering an authentic glimpse into local life, traditional markets, and culinary heritage. The day concludes at Connaught Place, where you can explore boutique stores, enjoy a curated shopping experience, or dine at one of the capital's finest restaurants.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 14: Spiritual & Contemporary Delhi – Culture at Leisure

Start your day with a visit to Swaminarayan Akshardham, an architectural marvel known for its intricate craftsmanship and immersive cultural exhibitions that offer insight into India's spiritual traditions. The experience is both visually grand and deeply engaging, making it a highlight of modern Delhi.

The remainder of the day is designed around your personal interests, opt for a private art and gallery tour, a curated culinary experience exploring regional Indian cuisines, or a bespoke shopping journey featuring fine textiles, jewellery, and design. Alternatively, enjoy a leisurely afternoon at your hotel with spa therapies or wellness treatments, ensuring a balanced and unhurried exploration of the city.

Day 15: Delhi to Agra – Journey into Mughal Grandeur

Depart Delhi and drive along the Yamuna Expressway to Agra, ensuring a smooth and comfortable journey. Upon arrival, check into your hotel, where the afternoon is at leisure to relax and soak in the setting.

In the evening, visit Mehtab Bagh for a serene and less-crowded view of the Taj Mahal at sunset, as the monument changes hues in the fading light. Return to your hotel for an exclusive dining experience, with the option of a private setup that enhances the sense of occasion.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 16: Taj Mahal Sunrise & Agra Fort – Timeless Icons

Begin early with a sunrise visit to the Taj Mahal, when the soft morning light reveals its finest details and the atmosphere is at its most tranquil. Accompanied by an expert guide, gain deeper insight into the history, symbolism, and craftsmanship behind this iconic monument.

Return to your hotel for a leisurely breakfast before heading to Agra Fort, a magnificent red sandstone fortress that once served as the seat of Mughal power. The afternoon is at leisure, choose to indulge in a spa treatment, enjoy a curated storytelling session on Mughal history, or simply relax in the comfort of your hotel with views of the Taj.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 17: Departure transfer

After a relaxing morning, depart Agra and drive back to Delhi in time for your onward international flight. A seamless transfer ensures a comfortable conclusion to your journey.

Meals: Breakfast

Best Time to do this Trip

The best time to visit Nepal is during the autumn (September to November) and spring (March to May) seasons, when the weather is mild and stable, making it ideal for sightseeing and wildlife tours.

Autumn (September to November): This is considered the peak tourist season in Nepal, especially for trekking and outdoor activities. The weather is cool and dry, with daytime temperatures generally ranging from 20°C to 25°C in the lowlands (Kathmandu, Pokhara, Chitwan) and cooler temperatures of 10°C to 15°C in the hills. Clear skies provide breathtaking views of the Himalayas, making it an ideal time to explore Kathmandu, Pokhara, Chitwan, and Lumbini.

Spring (March to May): Another excellent time to visit, spring is marked by warmer temperatures, with lows of 15°C and highs around 25°C to 28°C in the lowlands, and cooler conditions in the higher hills. The season is famous for blooming flowers, especially rhododendrons in the hilly regions, and lush green landscapes. Clear weather makes it ideal for photography, sightseeing, and outdoor tours across the country.

ACCOMMODATION

Kathmandu- Dwarikas

Chitwan- Meghauli Serai

Bandipur- Barahi Jungle lodge

Pokhara- Sarangkot

Lumbini - Tiger Palace By Soaltee

Delhi – Trident Gurgaon

Agra- Oberoi Amarvilas

Inclusions

- Accommodation in Kathmandu for 3 nights
- Accommodation in Chitwan for 2 nights
- Accommodation in Bandipur for 1 night
- Accommodation in Pokhara for 2 nights
- Accommodation in Lumbini for 2 nights
- Accommodation in Kathmandu for 1 night
- Flight ticket from Kathmandu to Delhi

- Accommodation in Delhi for 3 nights
- Accommodation in Agra for 2 nights
- All transfers and sightseeing as per itinerary.
- Meals as mentioned
- English speaking local Tour Guide
- Sightseeing admission fees
- All applicable taxes as on date

Exclusions

- International air ticket other than the mentioned
- Expenses of personal nature such as drinks, tip, laundry, phone etc.
- Extra expenses due to nature and unforeseen events.
- Travel Insurance.
- Visa

Notes

- Rooms are subject to availability at the time of booking
