DETAILED ITINERARY

DAY 01: ARRIVAL IN KATHMANDU

Arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport and transfer to your family-friendly hotel in Thamel. After your journey, take time to relax and settle in at the hotel. If you’re feeling refreshed, you may enjoy a gentle stroll around the neighborhood to soak in the local atmosphere. In the evening, you’ll be treated to a warm welcome with a traditional Nepali dinner.

Meal: Dinner

DAY 02: KATHMANDU EXPLORATION

Mountain Flight: Start the morning with an early scenic mountain flight along the Himalayas. This is a one-hour flight from Kathmandu airport and allows you exquisite views of snow-capped peaks, including Mount Everest (Sagarmatha), Lhotse, Nuptse, Ama Dablam, and Cho Oyu on clear days. It’s an unforgettable way to witness the grandeur of the world’s highest mountains without trekking. After breakfast, take a short drive to the south of Kathmandu city and take a scenic cable car ride up Chandragiri Hills, where sweeping Himalayan views unfold on clear days. The hilltop offers open spaces to wander, short nature trails, and areas where younger guests can stretch their legs and enjoy the fresh mountain air. Later, descend to Swayambhunath, also known as Monkey Temple, one of the valley’s most iconic landmarks. Spin rows of prayer wheels, take in panoramic views over Kathmandu, and observe the resident monkeys from a safe distance. Along the way, your guide introduces simple Buddhist symbols and stories that make the visit both engaging and meaningful.

In the evening, head to Boudhanath Stupa, where locals walk clockwise around the stupa in a peaceful daily ritual. Light butter lamps for wishes and take part in a brief hands-on Thangka painting introduction, a creative cultural activity that offers insight into Himalayan art traditions while allowing everyone to try their hand at it.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 03: KATHMANDU – CHITWAN

Take a short morning flight to Bharatpur (20–30 minutes) and transfer to your jungle resort near Chitwan National Park, a UNESCO-listed wildlife sanctuary known for its rich biodiversity. After lunch, set out on a gentle canoe ride along the Rapti River, gliding past riverbanks where mugger crocodiles bask in the sun and colorful kingfishers dart across the water. The calm pace allows for quiet observation and great photo opportunities. Later in the afternoon, enjoy a guided bicycle ride through nearby Tharu villages. The trails are mostly flat and helmets are provided, making it comfortable and suitable for families. Along the way, observe traditional mud houses, local farms, and daily village life. In the evening, gather for a cultural program featuring traditional Tharu stick dances and music, offering insight into the heritage of the indigenous community of the region.

Flight Duration: 20 Minutes.

Drive Distance: 14km | 30 Minutes.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 04: CHITWAN – JUNGLE SAFARI

Start early with a thrilling jeep safari into Chitwan National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Traverse the park's lush forests and grasslands in search of one-horned rhinos, sambar deer, and if lucky, glimpses of sloth bears. Bird enthusiasts will delight in spotting over 300 species of rare and colourful birds, and though elusive, the legendary Royal Bengal Tiger calls this habitat home. Next, visit the Elephant Breeding Centre, where young elephants roam safely and you can learn about conservation efforts and the care routines for these gentle giants. The afternoon is at leisure. Enjoy a relaxing birdwatching walk, take in the riverside scenery, or let the family unwind at the resort's play areas. This gentle pace ensures everyone has time to rest or engage with nature at their own comfort.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 05: CHITWAN – KATHMANDU

After a final morning in the wild, a short, scenic flight whisks you from the plains of Chitwan back to the vibrant energy of Kathmandu. In Kathmandu, make a visit to the Kathmandu Durbar Square, a UNESCO World Heritage site where ancient history feels remarkably alive. Families can explore the royal artifacts of the Hanuman Dhoka Museum before visiting the Kumari Ghar, where you may catch a rare, silent glimpse of the Living Goddess at her carved wooden window. The adventure continues with a sensory-rich walk through the bustling traditional markets of Indra Chowk and Ason, where narrow alleys overflow with spices and brassware. Your journey culminates in the neon-lit labyrinth of Thamel, the city's premier hub for treasures. The evening is yours to wander, offering the perfect opportunity to hunt for hand-painted mandalas or pashminas before enjoying a final dinner at one of the district's famous garden cafes.

Drive Distance: 14km | 30 Minutes. Flight Duration: 25 minutes

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 06: KATHMANDU TO PARO & DRIVE TO THIMPHU

Drive to the airport in the morning for a flight to Bhutan. Arrive at Paro International Airport, where you will be greeted by your guide. Upon landing at Bhutan's picturesque riverside airport, private transfer winds through Paro Valley's terraced fields towards Thimphu, the capital city of Bhutan. Enroute, visit Tachogang Lhakhang and cross the iron bridge built by the Kagyu Master, Thangtong Gyalpo in the 15th century. In the evening, visit Tashichho Dzong, the impressive fortress and monastery that houses the throne room of the King of Bhutan. Stroll through its courtyards and admire the majestic architecture, beautifully illuminated as dusk falls. Overnight at Thimphu.

Flight Duration: 1 Hour, 15 Minutes. Drive Distance: 50km | 1.5 hours.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 07: THIMPHU EXPLORATION

Begin the day with a peaceful morning walk around the National Memorial Chorten, a striking white stupa built in memory of Bhutan's third king. Watch locals as they perform daily prayer rituals, spinning prayer wheels and circling the stupa, and feel the serene atmosphere of Bhutanese spiritual life. From here, visit the Sangaygang viewpoint, a scenic spot offering sweeping views of Thimphu Valley, perfect for photos, light play, and enjoying the fresh mountain air. Continue to the Motithang Takin Preserve, home to Bhutan's quirky national animal, the takin.

Observe these unique creatures in a safe, natural setting and learn about their unusual habits and conservation. Next, explore the Bhutan Postal Museum, where the family can get creative by designing personalized stamps. Make sure to carry a good digital photo, as this will become a fun keepsake of your Bhutan adventure. Stop by Zorig Chusum, the traditional arts and crafts school, to see young artisans at work and even try your hand at some of Bhutan's 13 traditional arts under gentle guidance. Later, visit Buddha Dordenma, a giant golden Buddha statue perched on a hill overlooking Thimphu Valley. Enjoy a relaxed nature walk around the statue, soaking in the panoramic vistas and the tranquility of this spiritual landmark.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 08: THIMPHU TO PUNAKHA

After breakfast, set off on a scenic drive from Thimphu to Punakha, winding through lush valleys and charming villages. Pass through Lobesa and continue to Sopsokha Village, where a short countryside walk takes you to Chimi Lhakhang, the famed “Fertility Temple.” Here, hear the humorous and intriguing local folklore, and experience the temple’s unique cultural traditions that bring smiles to visitors of all ages. Arrive in Punakha and explore the magnificent Punakha Dzong, perched at the confluence of the Pho Chhu and Mo Chhu rivers. Wander through its spacious courtyards, intricately carved halls, and grand stairways, appreciating the architectural beauty and historical significance of this fortress-monastery. Cross the Punakha Suspension Bridge, one of the longest in Bhutan, offering stunning views of the valley and rivers below. In the late afternoon, enjoy a Traditional Bhutanese Dress Photoshoot, where the family can don Gho and Kira for memorable portraits against the breathtaking Punakha valley backdrop.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 09: PUNAKHA TO PARO

After breakfast, drive back to Paro through scenic valleys, passing Dochu La Pass at 3,100 meters. Stop to admire the panoramic Himalayan views framed by the 108 colorful chortens, a striking symbol of peace and spirituality. Take a few moments to enjoy the crisp mountain air and capture memorable photographs of the surrounding peaks. Upon arrival in Paro, visit Ta Dzong, the National Museum. Explore its fascinating collection of Bhutanese artifacts, including traditional weapons, religious paintings, stamps, and sculptures. The museum offers an engaging introduction to Bhutan’s history, culture, and artistic traditions. In the late afternoon, enjoy a family-friendly archery session, a supervised introduction to Bhutan’s national sport. Try your hand with both traditional and modern lightweight bows in a safe and fun environment, guided by local instructors who make the experience engaging for all ages. This is a unique opportunity to participate in a centuries-old Bhutanese tradition.

Drive Distance: 127km | 3-4 hours.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 10: PARO –HIKE TO TIGER’S NEST

After an early breakfast, drive to the trailhead and begin the hike to Taktsang Monastery (Tiger’s Nest), Bhutan’s most iconic pilgrimage site. The trail climbs gradually through pine forest scented with juniper and lined with fluttering prayer flags, with viewpoints opening across the Paro valley. The hike takes about 2–3 hours to reach the cafeteria viewpoint, where you rest and enjoy the first close view of the monastery clinging dramatically to the cliff face 900 meters above the valley floor. From here, continue along a narrower path descending to a waterfall and then climbing a final stone staircase to the monastery. According to tradition, Guru Rinpoche meditated in a cave here in the 8th century, making it one of the holiest places in Bhutan. Inside, you visit the temples and sacred chambers and spend time in quiet reflection. After lunch at the cafeteria (or on return), descend along the same trail to the base and drive back to Paro. After the hike, return to Paro town for a relaxed afternoon. You may visit local markets for souvenirs.

Drive Distance: 12km | 0.5 hours (trailhead).

Trek Duration: 4-5 hours

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 11: DEPARTURE

After breakfast, transfer to Paro International Airport for your onward flight. Reflect on an unforgettable journey through the Himalayas, from the bustling streets of Kathmandu to the peaceful valleys of Bhutan, filled with cultural experiences, wildlife encounters, and family adventures.
